Anti-Cruelty Society.—A meeting will be held in the upstairs council chamber in the city hall tonight for the purpose of forming a local Anti-Cruelty society and all interested persons are invited. The session will begin at 8 o'clock and a report on matters of organization will be made by a committee consisting of Apostle D. O. McKay, Chief of Police T. E.
Browning, Mrs. S. S. Smith, G. A.
Goates and E. L. Van Meter.

Sack-Acc and Overall Dance.—

25th. 50 cents couple. Good music.

Moving Pictures.—The chiropractors of Utah are to continue their campaign of education in regard to their profession with motion pictures, according to an announcement just made. The films will be prepared under the direction of E. J. Prentiss and Ralph T. Guy. It is planned to show them in every city and town in the state and also in other states.

Stinson's Special Lunch.—You will find it just suits you. The Little Cozy with the Big Reputation.

Coincidence.—During a snowstorm on January 3, one year ago, Mrs.
Claude Moyes, a well known nurse, wife of a popular deputy county court clerk, received an urgent call to attend a patient far in the country.
She accomplished the arduous journey in a cutter. Yesterday, the same date, during the same kind of snowstorm, Mrs. Moyes received the same kind of urgent call from the same neighborhood and made the journey in the same manner.

Wireless Machine.—The first public demonstration of the Leishman wireless transmission machine, especially adapted to the sending of photographs by wire or wireless, will be given in the office of Simon Bamberger, governor of Utah, on Friday afternoon, January 26 at 4 o'clock. Mr. LeRoy Leishman is the inventor of the instrument.

Boy Born.—Glad tidings have been received by relatives in Ogden of the birth of a ten-pound boy to Mayer and Mrs. R. J. Smith, nee Miss Marion L.
Reid of Upper Bingham, Utah. Mother and child doing well.

Seriously Ill.—Mrs. Jennie Garneau, 1943 Odell avenue, is in a very serious condition. Mrs. Garneau has been confined to her bed the past ten days.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will meet on Friday, 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. Chas. W.
Kendall, 983 Twenty-third street. All ladies are welcome.

Railway Men Busy.—F. C. Smith, assistant superintendent and William J. Toy, division engineer of the Southern Pacific, are going over their line directing improvement work.

Fair a Success.—The country fair entertainment at Woodmen's hall under auspices of the Knights of Columbus, council No. 777, was a marked success and financial success.

Coal Wanted.—Clerk Lester H.
Froerer of the county school board, said today, the supply of coal for the schools is sufficient for a week. Efforts are being made to obtain coal.
School attendance is now improving, especially at North Ogden.

Good Times.—County Recorder Katherine Higgins-Booth and her clerks were busy today, as on every day, booking releases of mortgages paid, indicating general prosperity.
Mortgage loans are comparatively few.

Long Live the King!—A group of visitors at the farm convention today evidenced keen interest in the honey industry. They all agreed that Frederick W. Redfield of Superior Honey honey, 544 Washington avenue, is the bee king of Weber county, and that R. T. Reese of Pleasant View is his apparent to his crown. They said the Weber county honey is crystal clear and superior to all other honey.

FRANK FRANCIS WILL REMAIN WITH THE STANDARD

Having been selected secretary of the Ogden Publicity Bureau, but discovering that he is more urgently needed on the Standard, Frank Francis, for twenty years with this paper, today thanked the bureau directors for their high honor and entered into a contract to remain with the paper for a period of years.

At the time of his appointment, the directors of the bureau accepted Mr.
Francis' application as evidence that he was free to take up the publicity work and such was the understanding all around, but later it developed that the Standard felt his going would work an injury to the paper and he was prevailed on to retain his present position as editor.

GEORGE PRIMROSE FAMOUS MINSTREL ORPHEUM TOMORROW

The headline act on the Pantages vaudeville bill at the Orpheum theater this week opening tomorrow afternoon is an act that will delight the patron of the popular playhouse as it is old-fashioned minstrelsy and headed by America's most famous minstrel man, George Primrose himself and eight of his famous fun-makers. This one act is alone worth the price of admission at the Orpheum, but there are a number of other acts that make up the excellent bill. Risetta, the 90-pound girl, who defies any man to lift her, and other features. Boxoffice at the Orpheum opens today.—Advertisement.

BANQUET AT WEBER CLUB TO WIND UP THE FARMERS' ROUND-UP AND CONFERENCE

Directors of the Weber County Farm Bureau and W. Preston Thomas, county agricultural agent, this afternoon were perfecting plans for a grand banquet to be given by the bureau at the Weber club Saturday evening, 5 to 7:30 o'clock, in honor of visitors to the Round-Up and housekeepers' conference. Covers will be laid for at least 150 persons.

Many distinguished men and women will be included among the guests.
Governor Simon Bamberger, former Governor E. M. Ammons of Colorado, Mrs. Harriet L. B. Darling, famous housekeeping expert; Miss Alice Rav-enhill of Boston, a leader in home economics in the East; Mrs. Melba Reed Jones, Miss Rose Jones of Salt Lake, Misses Lillian Wright, Louise Pierce, Ellen Thomas, Miss Gertrude McChyne, President Peterson of the Agricultural college and many others are expected to attend.

Donald D. McKay, president of the State Farm bureau, directors of the Weber County Farm bureau, and members will serve as hosts on the reception committee.

All members of the bureau are requested to notify Mrs. Thomas of their desired reservations.
This banquet will mark the beginning of a series of united effort on the part of the farmers, business men and forward-looking citizens generally to develop in Weber county a veritable paradise of opportunity. The aim will be, they say, to unite the power of the positive qualities of all the people in a great upbuilding movement, which will have far-reaching results.

FARM CONVENTION TO TALK ON VITAL ISSUES TONIGHT IN THE OGDEN TABERNACLE

Laughing at the snowstorm, the several hundred visitors attending the Farmers' Roundup and Housekeepers' conference in the three halls in Tabernacle square, again today trooped merrily to the several important meetings and conferences. They say they don't object to a little snow. They see, instead, the grandeur of Ogden's scene surroundings, and they feel the thrill and inspiration of the dawn of the golden era in the development of Weber county, which is proclaimed in heart-to-heart, practical fashion by every speaker and visitor.

Seven fat years are at hand, they say, and then seven times seven, ad infinitum.

Appeals to Intelligence.—To the subjects discussed by the distinguished lecturers are dry and uninteresting, but the farmers, the creators of wealth, and everyone intent upon their welfare, listen attentively to every word. These lectures from the Agricultural college and elsewhere aren't wasting words. They talk of practical problems and tell how to solve them. Some of them at times, speaking in earnest, conversational style, appeal eloquently for co-operation in all improvement work, for closer study and attention, for greater ambition and determination. Their appeals in this respect are applauded as words "fitly spoken, like apples of gold in pictures of silver," and every audience is enthusiastically responsive.

Farmers Eager for Knowledge.—At the conjoint session last night Dr. George Thomas lectured on how to make use of the federal farm loan act. He continued his instruction today and was constantly surrounded by farmers eager to have his advice.
Today's program, like those preceding, was carried out exactly as published. There was a good sized audience at each of the eight meetings, occurring during the same period of time.

Dr. G. R. Hill told how to overcome plant diseases. Dr. E. G. Titus gave specific instructions how to eradicate grain insects. Professor Byron Alder gave a practical lesson on poultry incubation and brooding.

Dr. H. J. Frederick advised concerning the best methods of disinfection, advocating coal tar preparations. He pleaded eloquently for farm and home cleanliness, which is next to godliness in every respect. Dr. W. E. Carroll illustrated impressively how the animal utilizes its food.

Emil Hansen told how to cultivate shrubs, trees and roses, how to make the home beautiful.

Professor L. M. Winsor told how to save money through measurement of irrigation water, the proper use of weirs, meters and other devices.

W. E. Goodspeed described the ideal vegetable garden for home and market. Dr. W. E. Carroll talked of livestock and feeds. Professor John T.
Caine III told of raising of beef and hogs on the farm. F. H. Gunn of Richfield advised how to fatten lambs.

The housekeepers' conference today began with delightful music and reading by Misses Mary Woolley and Ste-liah Warner. Dr. O. Olsen advised concerning the care and condition of the mother. Dr. Olson will speak again tonight at the conjoint session on better babies, more of them and the proper care of babies and their mothers.

How to put money in everybody's pocket; how to make Ogden a magnificent city instead of a town; how to take immediate advantage of nature's lavish endowment; how to start a neverceasing shower of blessings—these will be the themes of vital importance to everyone, of the speakers at tonight's conjoint session of the farm convention in the Ogden tabernacle, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Donald D. McKay, president of the Utah State Farm bureau, will tell what Utah must do to become a great feeding and packing center.

Simon S. Jensen, general manager of the Ogden Packing & Provision company, will tell what the packer can do.

J. H. Mandertfield, general manager of the Salt Lake Union Stock yards, also will tell what the packer can do.

Dr. S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Woolgrowers' association, will tell what the sheepmen can do.

The definite aim of the convention tonight will be to assure thorough cooperation between the farmers and business men.

All women are urgently invited to attend and hear a brief but vitally important address by Dr. O. Olsen on the subject of babies and mothers. He is a recognized authority on this subject.

All business men who are interested in the development of Ogden are especially invited by the bureau officials to hear the addresses tonight and take part in the conference. This is the beginning, it is said, of a definitive program of progress in which every good citizen is expected to join.

BURGLARS FORCE WAY INTO FIVE POINTS DRUG STORE

Burglars forced an entrance to the Five Points drug store Monday night and obtained about $25 in cash, a large quantity of powdered opium, a revolver, and a number of small articles, according to an investigation made by the police yesterday afternoon.

The building was entered by way of a rear door, which had been jimmied from its hinges and the burglars pried open a number of chests and drawers that were locked. In their search for money and opiate, they overlooked in their haste, however, a sack containing about $200.

W. M. JEFFERS IS ON INSPECTION TRIP OVER THE U. P.

W. M. Jeffers of Omaha, general manager of the Union Pacific railroad, was due to arrive in Ogden, accompanied by a number of other railroad officials, at 3:25 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Jeffers is making a tour of his system, following the recent general survey by Judge Robert S. Lovett, the head of the road, for the purpose of personally inspecting specific needs and proposed improvements.

The visit of Mr. Jeffers at this time is said to be highly important to Ogden, forwarding, as it will, with a vim that assures success, the preliminary work of the railroad in preparing for the Golden Wedding anniversary and international exposition at Ogden in 1919.

Mr. Jeffers did not inform his local representatives the length of his stay in Ogden. He is on an executive mission, not a pleasure tour.

The Union Pacific will do a large amount of improvement work in Ogden during the year.

RABBIT HUNT SUNDAY ON KELTON BRANCH OF THE S. P.

Several well-known local sportsmen, working in conjunction with D. M.
Newton of the Oregon Short Line and W. G. Wilson of the Southern Pacific and Fred Baker of Kelton, Utah, completed arrangements today for another rabbit shoot to be staged on a suitable range on the Kelton branch of the Southern Pacific next Sunday.

The railroad men announced that the same rate given the hunters who participated in the shoot at Monument, Box Elder county, last Friday, would be obtained for the second excursion, and Mr. Baker will make arrangements to gather up the dead rabbits and haul them to the train. It is expected that a larger crowd of sportsmen than before will participate in the coming shoot.

FIREMEN OF THE STATE TO GIVE FIRST ANNUAL BALL

The Ogden local of the Utah Firemen's Relief association, recently organized, has decided to give its first annual ball on the night of Wednesday, March 7, and the proceeds will be used for the entertainment of the delegates to the annual convention of the state association, which is to be held here next August. It is expected that from 300 to 500 fire fighters from all parts of the state will attend the convention and for this reason the Ogden fire laddies are desirous of making a big success of the coming social.
The dance will be held in the Royal dancing academy and will be the first that has been given in Ogden by the city firemen in a period of about twenty years.

Chief George A. Graves of the fire department was elected president of the local firemen's organization and the other officers selected were E. B.
Phillips, vice president; A. B. Hamilton, secretary; M. J. Hinton, treasurer, and three captains—H. H. Ward-leigh, M. H. Hinton and W. B. Meyer—trustees.

Attorneys C. R. Hollingsworth and Rolla S. Farnsworth and former Deputy Clerk John V. Bluth were preparing today for another set to be before Judge Arthur E. Pratt over the merits of Mr. Farnsworth's recent affidavit that Messrs. Hollingsworth and Bluth had co-operated in causing him to lose a large bill of costs in the case of Ralph Hirsh and Solomon Dryfoos
